That's It! / Täitsa Lõpp
(comedy, Estonia 2011)

A comedy about the end of the world which is to happen on 21 December 2012!

That's It! is the world's first film made by a whole country. The Estonian nation joined forces to create this unique "folk film" to celebrate the 100th anniversary of Estonian cinematography. The script was written by the internet community, the actors were selected by the votes of viewers of a reality show and the film's premiere was held in 111 cinemas all around Estonia on 11/11/2011.

Golden Parazyth is a Lithuanian musical project which mixes energy-fuelled electro rhythms with IDM elements and broken beats.

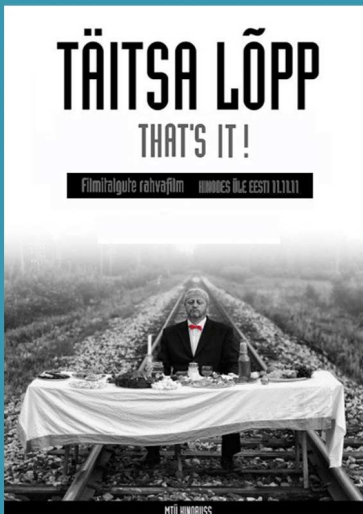

The group is known for its dynamic live performances and uplifting reverb vocals with lyrics in English.

The band was formed in 2005 and has released three albums so far, thus making it one of the best-known Lithuanian electronic music acts.

After the concert, the night will continue with eclectic club music mixed by DJs from Latvia.

DJ Heinch and his accomplices will keep the dance floor busy with a mix of electronic music (house, disco, electro, breaks) and other musical styles, blending international vibes with tunes from the Baltic States.

The Baltic Night is supported by the Honorary Consuls of Estonia (Lex Thielen), Latvia (Henri Diederich) and Lithuania (Robert Wagener) in Luxembourg.
